

Uganda

27 june – 3 july

The Baptist Union of Uganda (BUU) under the leadership of Alex Wanyama continues to grow as new churches are being established, with many in remote areas of the country.

One important factor for this growth is the number of Baptist schools receiving help from the BUU, especially in the area of professional training for teachers and an updating in the curriculum being taught.

PRAY FOR:

SUNDAY

27

The Baptist pastors and church leaders who will be preaching God's Word today throughout the country of Uganda – pray that many may be blessed.

MONDAY

28

The training of pastors – pray that these dedicated people may receive a good foundation to enable them to be used by God in his Church.

TUESDAY

29

Alex Wanyama and the BUU staff who will meet today for their weekly prayer meeting and share news of the week together.

WEDNESDAY

30

Juliet Galiwango, the BUU Educational Co-ordinator, who will be preparing and undertaking teacher training workshops in many regions of the country.

THURSDAY

1

Graeme Riddell who, along with his wife Jenny, works with Juliet Galiwango in leading educational workshops as well as legal rights for children.

FRIDAY

2

The many development projects being run throughout Uganda that the local communities will really benefit from these initiatives.

SATURDAY

3

Ongoing political stability in Uganda and that the President and the government will make decisions for the benefit of all Ugandan people.

UGANDA

Capital: Kampala
Area: 241,038 sq km
Population size: 32,369,558
Population under 14: 50%
Major trade partners (% of exports): Sudan 14.3%, Kenya 9.5%, Switzerland 9%, Rwanda 7.9%

'Build each other up in your most holy faith, pray in the power of the Holy Spirit' (Jude 1: 20, NLT)